

MEETING MINUTES FOR MONDAY, OCTOBER 19, 2026

Joan called the meeting to order.

Suzanne Chamberlain said a few words about aging.

Remember to scan your recreation membership card at the desk when you come to the senior centre

Remember to check in at the back desk when you enter the meeting

I'll read the condensed meeting from last week meeting these go to our website for full Monday minutes.

I would like to accept the minutes are there any errors or emissions, can we have a seconder? thank you

Our classes have been cancelled for the time being we won't be offered until Winter and we need at least six or more people signed up.

Isaiah Clement from Brella asked me to let you know of a presentation Fleetwood library November 5 from 11 to one free lunch is required and the poster with the phone number to register with Gail and Beth It's digital safety for older adults.

Sadly I have news, She's not been active in the club for several years but many of our long-term members will remember her and at one point she was our club presidents. Her name is Dixie Mogg and she recently passed away in the age of 94 her family invites those that knew her to the celebration life on November 7 1:30 PM Mundy Park Fieldhouse if you're unable to attend, but would like to express your condolences to our family cards can be sent to her son Darren Mogg, at 1619 Rochester Ave., Coquitlam V3K2X7

November 14 there's a health and wellness forum presented to us by community services and icon from 10:30 to 2:30 you must register at the front desk here our club will have a table set up

I know we are number one of the five stage program to help seniors access to healthcare online. This is also included in our course offerings in Winter session.

There is a free class at the Apple Store. There is no date yet for this course, but it will be in November and she will let you know there's a sign if you're interested at all please vote for give them approximate number and if you know what you would like to focus on, that would be helpful to help structure close to our needs we can have up to 12 people attend course.

Next week 26th of October, we have Gerri from Coverdale computer doing the presentation on the computer please make sure you check in the back when you come. Gayle and Beth will be doing registration and they aren't familiar with all your faces yet so please register with them today we have Adam from Newton library.
